W.P. No. 6121 (SS) 01
(Old No. 11067/1987)

Hon' ble M.M. Ghildiyal, J

Case called out.

No one is present despite called twice.

By means of this writ petition, the petitioner has prayed to issue a writ in the nature of mandamus commanding the respondents not to treat the petitioner's service having come to an end automatically on 20.05.1987 as per appointment letter attached to the writ petition.

In this writ petition, on 30.06.1989, direction was issued by the court that until otherwise directed by the court or so long as the candidate duly selected by the commission do not join on the posts held by the petitioners, the petitioners shall continue to be treated as ad-hoc appoi8ntees and their services shall not be deemed to have come to an end on 20th May 1987.

Thereafter, the Education Department has framed Rules for regularization for the ad-hoc teachers and the ad-hoc teachers have been regularised. As such, the writ petition has become infructuous.

Accordingly, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous.

(M.M. Ghildiyal, J.)

19.07. 2005:
NCM: